Kettle Moraine Gardens Resident of the Month -
Gladys Schneeberger

Gladys was born in Brotherton, Wisconsin in 1927. Her family later moved to Milwaukee and then when she was ten years old, they moved to Princeton, Wisconsin, where she lived with her three sisters (Jean, Joyce and Sally) and her mom. Her sister, Jean, lives in California and her other sister, Joyce, lives out west. Her baby sister, Sally, passed away about 15 years ago. She remembers Sally as “so much fun!” and she had a “boisterous laugh”, too.

Gladys grew up in Princeton and knew her future husband, Earl, for most of her life. They attended the same church and were high school sweethearts. They got married in April, 1947 and were happily married for 37 wonderful years, until Earl died in 1985. They had one child, Sue, who lives in Slinger.

Gladys worked in the Mukluk factory in Princeton for 19 years and then later she worked for a company that made sporting goods and uniforms. In fact, this factory used to make Packer uniforms.

For hobbies, Gladys belonged to a bowling league with her friends. She also enjoyed reading, jigsaw puzzles and was even was the family seamstress, who sewed suits for herself and clothes for her daughter. She even made her daughter’s confirmation dress. She also belonged to the “Gleaners”, a women’s church group, who ran activities and fundraisers for their church.

When asked if there was something her fellow residents may not know about her, Gladys replied, “When I was a teenager, I wanted to be a beautician or a kindergarten teacher”. Congratulations, Gladys, and being the Resident of the Month!
